THE ADVANCE

BREEZELETS

A recent advertisement in a Salt Lake City paper detailed the fact that "after taking four bottles of this tonic a woman raises 600 chickens."

The question now arises as to how many chickens her husband would accumulate for an equal quantity of the patent brew.

Can't say how many chickens he might raise, but in all probability he would raise the "dickens"

"Dispute with packers is all fixed up," says a dispatch.

By the packers winning out.

Geo. Hoadley, M.P.P., has at last gotten his old boss packing company going, and a packing and canning factory is expected to be running before long, as a good market has been found for all Canadian pensioned-off "rack" horses.

Which will eventually find a home market—but no bully horse for us.

A statement has been made that it is within the scope of reason that the Prince of Wales might marry a commoner—and a Canadian at that.

And now all those pretty girls the Prince danced with are looking in the mirror to see how queenly they look. The pity is that the Prince didn't see Chinook's pretty girls.

Premier Nitti may read the speech from the throne at the opening of the Italian parliament instead of King Victor Emmanuel, because of the presence of a large number of anti-constitutionalists in the new house.

Under the circumstances King Emmanuel would be nutti not to let Nitti do the reading business

A case of "sleeping sickness" is reported at Calgary.

Don't wonder, with the thermometer between 30 and 40 below zero—some excuse to "sleep in" these mornings.

A lecturer on political economy tells us that class legislation is not beneficial in the long run, either to the class or the country.

But it is all O.K. to the sitting member who is drawing his sessional pay—and the graft.

A La Pas hunter, who was chased, the other day, by a pack of fifty hungry wolves, climbed a tree for safety.

And now some of our members of parliament may be taking the hint when a pack of hungry office hunters are after the fat jobs promised them.

CHINOOK BREEZES

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Allen have been engaged to take charge of the I. W. Deman farm, just north-west of the town.

Mrs. Gregg and baby returned home last week from Okotoks, where she has been visiting her sister the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Dawson and family are moving into town for the winter, and will reside in the Milligan house on Third Ave West.

A Lost Friend Returns Home

White sugar has made its appearance on the tables again in Chinook. "All things come to those who wait"—if you wait long enough.

A Treat in Store

A Christmas concert will be held in Laughlin school, on the evening of Thursday, Dec. 18th. Christmas tree and box social, followed by a dance.

A Bed Running Away With a Man

A Tuesday, a bed was seen walking away down town—with a man under it, instead of on it. Following the scriptural injunction, "Take up thy bed and walk"

Where Did The Money Come From?

From published accounts we notice that the same states that Chinook raised $6,800.00, of this amount E. R. Dell sold $3,050.00 and J. W. Yake $3,750.00 worth of victory bonds.

For The Ladies Only

The annual meeting of the Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Black, on Wednesday, Dec. 3rd. Officers for 1920 will be elected and a rest room discussed. Tea will be served at close of meeting.

Under The Limelight

On Friday, Dec. 5th, a social evening will be held under the auspices of the Chinook Local U.F.A. in the Chinook C. S. Program and dance. Ladies please bring lunch. The Farmers' Movement will be illustrated by limelight views.

Will Be Happy Forever Afterwards

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, Nov. 19th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Grey, of Riddellvale, when their daughter, Eva Ethel, was united in marriage to Mr. Ernest Evans Young, the Rev. John P. Sutcliffe, of Cereal, officiating. The bride was charmingly attired in a dress of white silk embroidered net over white satin de chene. After the ceremony a dainty supper was served, the tables being very artistically decorated. Mr. and Mrs. Young left later in the evening for Calgary, where the honeymoon will be spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson, jr. left on Tuesday morning for Nebraska, U.S.

The sum of $110 was realized at the ladies aid sale of work last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Robertson, the provincial government auditor, was in town this week, inspecting the village books.

Lawrence Berry and family moved into town for the winter, and are residing in the Hawkshaw place on Main Street.

Mr. Smith, auditor for the Union Bank, was in town on Monday, on his annual inspection of the branch banks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bradford and family, of Laughlin, have moved into town for the winter, having rented the Peyton new house on Second Ave East.

The first load of coal from the Sheerness mines on the Hanna-Medicine branch was shipped last week. P. R. Dobson is interested in one of these mines.

The next meeting of the ladies' aid will be held at the home of Mrs. A. Nicholson, on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 10th to which all ladies are invited.

Mr. O. F. Dunford of Calgary, and formerly proprietor of the Chinook Pharmacy, is in town this week, renewing old acquaintance and for a rest. Glad to see you, friend Dunford.

Ladies Cordially Invited

The following officers were elected at the lady curlers' meeting last week: Mrs. Dunn, president; and Mrs. Whitlock, vice-president. A cordial invitation is given to all ladies to join the ladies' curling club.

Looks Like The Real Thing

The advent of what seems to be real winter was ushered in early on Monday morning by a snow storm and a biting west wind, which, from reports, seems to have general throughout the province.

Harken, Oh, Ye Needy Farmers!

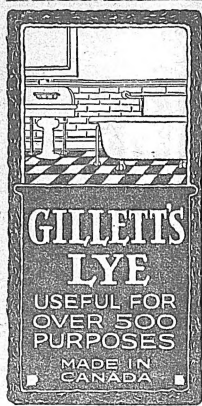

Mr. O. H. Price, the government relief agent, will be in Chinook every Wednesday afternoon on the local from the west until about noon on Thursday morning local from the west to hear all cases of farmers needing relief.

The Weather Knocked The Mockers

As far as we can ascertain, the public meeting called for last Monday night, to discuss the proposition of forming a mock parliament to entertain ourselves during the coming winter evenings, did not materialize. The very cold evening doubtless put a kink in the meeting. And then again, there is no sessional stipend attached to the office of the mockers.

Could Not Thresh The Farmers

Encouraged by the very mild weather of last week, the farmers whose grain was still unthreshed when the severe snow storm and wintery weather overtook them, again made preparations to get their threshing completed, and just when they were ready to start, the weather suddenly turned cold and with it came another snow storm, which has practically put threshing out of business for this season.

The Need For National Economy

With the successful flotation of the Victory Loan 1919—the enormous sum of $673,300,000 having been subscribed—the people of Canada have made provision for their great financial indebtedness occasioned by the war. When the Great War broke out with such startling suddenness in 1914, Canada pledged its last man and last dollar, if necessary, to uphold the cause of justice and liberty and to secure the triumph of those principles in which they believed, and which they regarded as alone making life worth living.

The Canadian people have kept faith. Their soldiers bore the brunt of battle right up to the last minute of the fighting, the Canadian Corps constituting the storm troops, the spearhead of the great allied advance from Amiens and on through Cambrai and Mons to victory. Those who remained at home served by work, self-denial and saving, and they have poured out their money in large amounts and small in order to enable the government to pay the country's bills and liquidate the indebtedness it had contracted. Canada still owes the money, but it owes it to its own people, who have loaned it to the country.

Canadians have done well and have no reason to be ashamed of the results achieved by them. They have done all, and more, than was asked of them, even by their own government. Many reasons might have been advanced why the people of the Dominion should hesitate, but they cast it all aside in the broad national interest. The Victory Loan 1919 was a vote of confidence, not in any government or administration, but in Canada—a demonstration by the people of Canada of a supreme confidence in themselves and their Dominion.

Now that the means have been provided for a "cleaning up" of the financial state, and the restoration of the country to a more normal basis, it becomes the imperative duty of the Federal Government to institute the strictest economy in all national administration, and by the introduction of reforms, place Canada on the high-way to marked future development and increased prosperity, happiness and contentment for all its people.

There is nothing to be gained in seeking to disguise the fact that there has been gross extravagance at Ottawa during the past five years. No doubt some of this was inevitable during the war, and Canada was not the only country to make such mistakes. But it cannot go on. It must be checked forthwith, and a return to financial sanity in Federal affairs established. Canada's expenditure at present far exceeds the revenue. This condition cannot be tolerated much longer. The two must be made to balance. This can only be done in one of two ways, or rather by a combination of both.

First and foremost, our national expenditures must be reduced to the lowest possible point consistent with efficient administration. There is room for the cutting off of millions of expenditure, the stoppage of leaks, and the careful husbanding of the country's finances. If this cannot be carried to the point where the expenditure is reduced to present income, then the income of the country must be increased. This, of course, means an increase of taxation, and this the people must bear.

The second duty of the Federal Government, therefore, is to waste no more time in evolving a scientific scheme for raising the revenues required to cover our national expenditures. This will involve the most careful consideration, in order that no injustice be done to any class or section of the country; in order that those who are best able to carry the burden shall take the heavy end of it and those least able get off more lightly; and finally, that the fiscal and taxation policies be so drafted as to promote the maximum development of the natural resources of the country by which alone can employment be provided for all the people and our national wealth and prosperity be increased.

Our present haphazard system of Federal financing must be scrapped, existing injustices and inequalities in taxation removed, and a general re-adjustment and re-classification brought about, and this must be done without further delay if disaster is to be avoided and the confidence of the people not seriously undermined, and unrest become more widespread. The Canadian people, too, as individuals, must realize that our greatest national need today is a universal adoption of the policy of increased production coupled with greater economy in living. For a time at least luxuries must be reduced to a minimum and extravagant indulgences of all kinds stopped. Having made the world safe for democracy, we must now set ourselves to the task of making democracy safe in the world, and this can only be done by the people as a whole getting back to first principles in conduct, in living, and in productive work.

THE FALL WEATHER HARD ON LITTLE ONES

Canadian fall weather is extremely hard on little ones. One day is warm and bright and the next wet and cold. These sudden changes bring on colds, cramps and colic and unless baby's little stomach is kept right the result may be serious. There is nothing to equal Baby's two tablets in keeping the little ones well. They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels, break up colds and make baby thrive. The tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

To Increase Egg Production. One hundred real "egg layers" on each of the 750,000 farms in Canada is the slogan adopted by a poultry club just formed in Winnipeg, Manitoba. Allowing a net profit of a dollar per hen, this would mean an annual revenue of $75,000,000. An elaborate campaign to further this project will be waged.

One Argument For More Salary

An Unfortunate Junior Teacher Who Lingered Long in the Service at a Miserable Salary

Victoria's feminine school teachers are sharing in the general increase of salary rendered necessary by the rise in the cost of living. There are some, however, who believe that such was accomplished by one who described herself as "an unfortunate junior teacher who has lingered long in the service at a miserable salary." This teacher illustrated the deplorable condition of her wardrobe by sending a tattered specimen in a neat brown paper parcel to the Director of Education, who forwarded the note and the garment to the Minister for Education, the latter presenting it to the Premier. The note was placed on an official file, the garment was placed in an unofficial basket, and the cause of junior teachers was greatly advanced.—Christian Science Monitor.

A hawk can spy a lark upon earth almost exactly the same color at 20 times the distance at which it is perceptible to a man or dog. A kite soaring out of human sight can still distinguish and pounce upon lizards and field mice on the ground, and the distance from which vultures and eagles can spy their prey is almost incredible.

'Tis a Marvellous Thing.—When the cures effected by Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil are considered, the speedy and permanent relief it has brought to the suffering wherever it has been used, it must be regarded as a marvellous thing that so potent a medicinal result from the use of six tablets which enter into its composition. A trial will convince the most skeptical of its healing virtues.

One Way to Silence Wives. Nine American soldiers have married at Archangel who do not understand a word of Russian. Their wives do not know one word of English. This situation is paralleled by a singular custom in certain islands of the Caribbean Sea. There the men speak a different language from that of the women. In Panama the husband's language is quite different from that used by their wives, and missionaries find it impossible to create a common text book for the family use. The husbands do not encourage any familiarity with their tongue, apparently finding the present arrangement too advantageous.

Big Lumber Deal Closed

What is probably the biggest deal in the history of the lumber business of Manitoba has just been negotiated at Winnipeg. Three hundred and twenty-four miles of timber land in the Pas district, in Northern Manitoba, have been disposed of for $1,500,000 to C. J. and D. N. Winton of Minneapolis, by the Finger Lumber Company. The deal, which includes a large sawmill, planing plants, and logging equipments, becomes effective at once and possession will be taken within a month. H. Finger, head of the retiring company, is a pioneer in the north country, going to the Pas in 1904, when it was Indian territory. The capacity of the company is about 190,000 feet per day.

Germany's Pre-War Debt to Lacemakers

Nottingham Commerce Chambers Urge Government Action

Nottingham lace merchants are exercised about pre-war debts owing to them by Germans. At a meeting of their chamber of commerce they decided to press on the government the urgency of recovering such debts. It is computed that the amount of these debts exceeds $2,500,000. A great part of the finishing and bleaching trade in Nottingham before the war was executed for firms in Plauen, whose withholding of payment has crippled severely some of the Nottingham houses. One local firm has more than $450,000 owing to it in Germany.

DAD! YOUR HAIR IS FALLING FAST

"Dandérine" Will Check That Ugly Dandruff and Stop Hair Coming Out.

To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of "Dandérine" at any drug or toilet counter for a few cents, pour a little in your hand, and rub it into the scalp. After several applications the hair usually stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff. Soon your hair on your scalp shows new life, vigor, brightness, thickness and more color.

Marble Bust Of Prince

Model Completed and Will Adorn Parliament Buildings at Ottawa

To commemorate the placing of the corner stone in the peace tower by the Prince of Wales, and as a small token of the country's appreciation of the royal visit, a marble bust and pedestal of the Prince will be erected in the new parliament buildings.

The model, already completed out of white clay, having a Gothic pedestal in harmony with the building, was exhibited in the hall of the Commons recently, and was greatly admired. The Prince is shown dressed in military costume, and though dignified, is tinged with a slight smile which twists his whole face.

They exert a sedative force upon the nerves and where there is unrest they bring rest.

Alberta Stockmen

To Be Well Represented at International Livestock Show at Chicago

Alberta is to be well represented at the International Livestock Show, to be held at Chicago in 1920. The Department of Animal Husbandry of the Alberta University has undertaken to select a number of fat steers bred and fed in Alberta. The animals for exhibition will be furnished from three leading beef breeds of Alberta, Herefords, Aberdeen Angus and Shorthorns, and several fine animals have been offered by stockmen of the province. These are to be available for demonstration purposes at the university during the season 1919-20, before being sent to the exhibition. Alberta stockmen are confident that they will make a good showing at the international.

Ashes of Flags Reach Paris

The ashes of the 70 flags captured by the Germans in 1870 and burned in Berlin last July in defiance of the terms of the peace treaty, have arrived in Paris at the French Army Museum, accompanied by an officer and some soldiers.

Alleged Letter Of Admiral Von Rueter

A Truly German Excuse to Cover Humane Trick

A letter alleged to have been written by Admiral von Rueter to Mr. Lloyd George, protesting against the detention of the admiral who commanded the German fleet at Scapa Flow when it was scuttled, and other officers of the sunken fleet, is published in the "Taegische Rundschau." Regarding the scuttling of the warships, Admiral von Rueter is quoted as saying:

"I was obliged to assume that war had again broken out, from the announcement in the British press regarding the rejection of the German counter-proposals to the Peace Treaty. Even if my idea that war had again broken out subsequently proved erroneous, nevertheless I acted in the conviction that it was war, and I and my subordinates, therefore, cannot be treated except in accordance with the usual customs of war."

Jimmy's Escape

"Jimmy," said the fond mother to her smart nine-year-old, "what became of that fruit cake I made for you as a treat yesterday?—Did you eat it?"

"No, ma'am," answered Jimmy with a grin. "I gave it to the teacher instead."

"That was very generous of you, Jimmy," complimented his mother. "And did your teacher eat it?"

"Yes, I think so," answered Jimmy. "She wasn't at school today."

TORPEDOED!

Don't blast your Liver and Bowels, but take "Cascarets."

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, bad taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach and cold.

Are you keeping your liver and bowels clean with Cascarets, or shock your insides every few days with Calomel, Salts, Oil and violent pills?

Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from your constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Cascarets never gripe, sicken or cause inconvenience, and Cascarets cost so little, too.

Great Hopes of Finding Oil

In reply to a newspaper representative at Edmonton, C. O. Stillman, of the Imperial Oil Company, stated that they have great hopes of developing a Canadian supply of oil in Northern Alberta before very long. Geologists of the company have been working in the territory during the past summer, and from results already obtained they feel quite sure that their work will be productive. Mr. Stillman and other high officials of the company have been going over the work that has been accomplished and considering plans for next year's investigations.

'Profiteers Of Labor and Capital'

Six Hours Labor Not Enough to Feed and Clothe the World

A convention of farmers was held in one of the southern states a few days ago, when a resolution was passed to the effect that six hours labor daily on the farm or in urban industry were not enough to feed and clothe the world.

One farmer bluntly stated that the "profiteers of labor" and the "profiteers of capital" seemed to be in combination to make the real workers of the country pay outrageous prices for the necessities of life. "Suppose," he added, "the farmer, who works from seven to noon, and from one to six, with other hours thrown in before breakfast and after supper, flatly refused to work more than six hours a day, where would these six-hour-a-day fellows get off at?"

Quite so. If the production of food, wool, cotton, hides and such factors in life were curtailed, the whole standard of human existence would be lowered just so many degrees towards mediocrity and barbarism. — From the Ottawa Journal.

ONLY TABLETS MARKED "BAYER" ARE ASPIRIN

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"

For Colds, Pain, Rheumatism, Aching Joints, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuritis, and for Headache, Neuralgia, Toothache, Earache, take Aspirin marked with the name "Bayer" or you are not taking Aspirin at all. Accept only "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" in an unbroken "Bayer" package which contains complete directions. Then you are getting the genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over twenty years. New name in Canada. Handy tin boxes containing 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages.

There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer" Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacturers of Monoaceticacid of Salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Compound will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

U.S. Senate's Action Puzzle to Britain

London.—Nearly all British public men are silent concerning the United States senate's dealings with the peace treaty. The reason for this is that they understand United States citizens regard the question as United States domestic political affair and fear that any expression from them might give offence, and be taken as attempts to influence United States politics.

Lord Robert Cecil and Lieut.-Gen. Jan Christian Smuts were the British sponsors for the League of Nations and are largely responsible for the details thereof, and both have registered their disappointment at the latest turn of events. Gen. Smuts in his appeal to the United States and Lord Robert Cecil in a brief speech in the House of Commons.

Lord Robert stands on that speech and refers all questioners to it as being all he has to say on the subject for the present.

It would be impossible to try to summarize public opinion. The first view reflected by the newspapers was that the United States had gone back on her agreement. Later advice from Washington, however, softened this feeling.

United States affairs generally, the relations between the senate and the President, the rule regarding the two-thirds majority and how a concurrent resolution might bring peace with Germany, are puzzling to the average man.

Sir Henry Drayton Thanks Workers

Gratification at Success of the Victory Loan and Appreciation of Patriotic Service Rendered
Ottawa.—In a statement handed to the Canadian Press, Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, expressed his gratification at the success of the Victory Loan and his appreciation of the enthusiastic and patriotic service rendered by these workers in its behalf. He suggests that subscribers everywhere will help to confirm the credit of Canada by holding the bonds which they have purchased.

Explain Delay in Wheat Shipments

Winnipeg.—Following the announcement of Jas. Stewart, chairman of the Wheat Export Board, that failure to move western wheat in normal volume was due to failure of the railways to supply cars, the administrative sub-committee of the Canadian Railway Association has issued this statement:

"Referring to the statement made to the press by James Stewart, chairman of the Canadian Wheat Board, respecting the movement of wheat to the head of the lakes; in arriving at his conclusion and in comparing this year's movement with the record one of 1915, Mr. Stewart has conveniently overlooked a number of important factors.

"First—That while the crop matured earlier than usual this year, threshing was delayed over a large portion of the West and marketing was unusually light until freeze-up came.

"Second—That winter struck the railways at least a month earlier than usual, with the inevitable result that transportation was slowed up.

"Third—That as a result of the prolonged western coal strike the railways were called on to move more commercial coal during the winter.

U. S. Will Not Attend Labor Meeting

Canadian Labor Delegates Say That It Should Make No Difference

Washington.—Rejection of the peace treaty by the United States was widely discussed among delegates to the international labor conference. There is general regret that the United States will not, as a result of the senate's action, be a signatory of conventions adopted by the conference. At the same time there is a general feeling that the labor branch of the League of Nations should go ahead with its work irrespective of what the United States may do.

Canadian employers have already expressed the view that Canada should not assent to labor conditions to which the United States is not prepared to assent.

Canadian labor takes an entirely contrary view. Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress, holds that steps taken by the United States should not hinder the adoption of progressive legislation by Canada, "even though the United States decides for the time being not to become a member of the League of Nations."

Tom Moore said: "I am of the opinion that the United States will eventually be forced by economic conditions to adopt progressive measures similar in the provisions to those decided upon by the labor conference."

Australia Suffers From Severe Drought

Stock and Crops Have Been Destroyed and Thousands of Settlers Ruined

London.—Australia, especially New South Wales, is suffering the most devastating drought since white men have resided in that country, even the drought of 1902 being surpassed, according to a Sydney dispatch to the Daily Mail.

Stocks and crops have been destroyed, and it is doubtful whether there will be enough seed wheat for next season's sowing. Hundreds, and perhaps thousands of settlers have been ruined. Northwestern New South Wales is described as a desert being stripped of everything green. Paddockers are littered with the skeletons of cattle, and even rabbits are dying in vast numbers.

J. W. Troupe, manager of the British Columbia coastwise steamship service, after conferring with the company officials in Montreal, will take passage to England.

Great Britain Removes Whiskey Restrictions

Release of 115,000,000 Gallons Announced in House of Commons

London.—One hundred and fifteen million gallons of whiskey, besides other quantities of spirits in bond in Great Britain, were released from war-time restrictions, and may be distributed to all-comers who can persuade the dealers to sell.

The announcement of the removal of the restrictions, which was made without warning in the House of Commons by the Food Controller, came as a surprise to members, who greeted it with loud cheers.

The liquor trade was equally surprised and was besieged by the well-to-do among the public as soon as the unexpected news spread. Many orders of from fifty to a hundred dozen were placed immediately, in addition to numerous commissions for smaller quantities.

Although the whiskey has been thus freed to supply every man, woman and child in the country with thirty-six bottles apiece, it is doubtful if the public will find it easy at present to increase consumption to a great extent. The government maintains control of the maximum price, which for whiskey is ten shillings and sixpence per bottle, and it is not believed that the dealers will sell much below that figure, as the existing high duty will remain.

Moreover, restrictions on distillation during the war and the necessity of maturing stocks may lead the dealers to hold large quantities. On the other hand, it will be possible to sell all the American whiskey which has reached and is still reaching England, though clearance from the customs may be slow.

Planned Assassinations

Fatal Presents Were Intended for U.S. Government Officials

Philadelphia.—A discovery of the "red" plot to slay officials with explosive Christmas mail packages was announced by Superintendent of Police James Robinson.

Information of the plot, which he considered reliable, indicates it is nation-wide and directed against federal, state and city authorities who took part in the national roundup of radicals planning overthrow of the government. Immediate steps were taken to prepare federal investigators, postal authorities and police action against the "mail terror" which is scheduled to begin operation shortly before and during the Christmas holidays.

Evidence of the existence of a plot to send bombs—through the mails under ribbons and holly was reported to Supt. Robinson by Andrew Emmanuel, head of the bomb squad who said he unearthed it during his investigation of radical activities here. The information was checked and verified according to Emmanuel. The source of information was carefully withheld by the police. It is believed to have originated from an "anarchist squad" who was afraid of the consequences of the plot.

Complains of Vaccination

Toronto.—Allegations against the civic department of public health in connection with forced vaccination in the schools were made at a meeting of the board of control, and will be thoroughly investigated. Parents told the board that their children were compelled to submit to vaccination, despite the fact that they sent letters to the school demanding that this be not done.

Attempt to Kill Admiral Kolchak

London.—An attempt to assassinate Admiral Kolchak, head of the All-Russian government, which until recently maintained its capital at Omsk, is reported in a wireless dispatch received here from Moscow. Hand grenades were thrown at Kolchak, six soldiers being killed and twelve wounded.

Gen. Smuts Appeals to U.S. on Treaty

Johnannesburg, South Africa.—Lieut.-Gen. Jan Christian Smuts, British member of the League of Nations Commission, in a message from South Africa to America, appeals to America not to blast the hopes of the world through non-ratification of the treaty covenant by the senate.

THE MARVELOUS WONDER

EATS-DANDRUFF HAIR GROWER

POSITIVELY GUARANTEED TO GROW HAIR ON BALD HEADS
Never before in the history of the world from the days of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden has there been a dandruff destroyer on the world's market that could restore the hair to its natural growth and vitality. New Contract Signed by Railwaymen

Is Practically the Same as Obtains on U.S. Roads

Winnipeg.—The general committee of the brotherhoods of railway trainmen and the confederation of railway conductors have signed a new agreement with the C.P.R., which carries an increase in wages for most of the men in train and yard service and makes a few changes in the rules governing working conditions of yard men, switch tenders now being included in the employees legislated for.

The contract signed is virtually the same as obtains on United States roads, but the greater portion of the increase in wages has been paid by the company since last summer, the men having had an interim agreement to that effect.

Von Hindenburg Explains

Says Defensive Strength of Germany Was Unfavorable From the Start

Berlin.—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg declared before the sub-committee of the national assembly investigating war responsibilities: "I know with absolute certainty that neither the people, the kaiser, nor the government desired war, for the government knew better than others Germany's tremendously difficult position in a war against the entente."

Germany's defensive strength, said the field marshal, was as unfavorable as possible from the start. It might be left to history to decide why Germany's peace policy had failed.

"If the military authorities prepared for the possibility of an unavoidable war," continued Von Hindenburg, "that was only their duty towards the nation. If there had been solid, united co-operation between the army and homeland, we could have attained victory."

"While with the enemy, notwithstanding his superiority, all parties were united everywhere firmly in the determination to be victorious, with us, although we were unmercifully inferior, interests at home made their influence felt and this state of affairs led to the breaking of the will to victory."

In all great decisions, Ludendorff and himself were of one mind, and had worked in full accord from August 29, 1916, to the end. "We considered unrestricted submarine warfare imperative immediately we entered the supreme command," said the field marshal.

"When 1917 came we could no longer permit our gallant soldiers to be bombarded with American ammunition and their wives and children starved by the blockade. The U-boat war was the only means to oppose these conditions."

Murder Charge Dismissed

Unwritten Law Played Prominent Part in the Defence

Saskatoon, Sask.—John Bronch, charged with the murder of Arnold Gert, a returned soldier, at Radisson, Sask., in October, was acquitted by a jury at Battleford. The unwritten law played an important part in the defence.

Bronch, it was charged, killed Gert with a knife in broad daylight, following an argument. T. A. Lynd defended the accused.

Bees By Airplane

Toronto.—The Aero Club of Canada has been asked to assist in a very special stroke of business. D. Brunne, of the Brunne Apiaries, near Lis-leard, is seeking to arrange through the Aero Club for airplanes to bring him an importation of bees from the southern states.

It is expected that a large number of bees will be imported into Canada for next year.

Germans Abandon Trip

Gothenburg.—The German delegation to the Washington labor conference has abandoned its trip on the eve of sailing and will return to Germany. It is announced the government considers the journey useless in view of the impending close of the conference.

To Put Treaty In Force at Once

Quebec Will Discuss Prohibition

Only Two Important Measures Are Down for Hearing This Session

Quebec.—At the Quebec legislature, which opens December 10, only two really important measures are so far on the order book. The appropriation of five million dollars for colonization, and the revision of the code regarding legislation for large corporations.

It is expected, however, that there will be a debate and probably a proposed amendment on prohibition, but it is anticipated that the present regulation regarding the liquor tariff will remain in force at least a couple of years yet.

Sinn Feins May Enter Parliament

Will Take Part in Discussion on Irish Government Bill

London.—There are strong rumors in the House of Commons lobbies that the Sinn Fein members are contemplating taking their seats at Westminster, coincident with the cabinet's coming announcement of the Irish government bill.

It is reported also that Countess Makiewicz will appear at the same time, in order to forestall Lady Astor as the first member of parliament, if Lady Astor is elected.

Pleaded Unwritten Law

John Lennox Is Acquitted on Charge of Attempted Murder

Winnipeg.—Rather an unusual ending came to a charge of attempted murder in the assize court here.

John Lennox, a farmer near Stonewall, Man., and a former member of the R.N.W.M.P., faced the court on an allegation of shooting with attempt to kill hired man, H. J. Ward. Lennox told his story of the connections of the hired man with his wife so appealingly, and pleaded the unwritten law so well, that he was found not guilty. Judge Galt told them he was glad they had returned this verdict and discharged the twelve, who went into the hall and shook hands with the accused and warmly sympathized with him, saying they were glad to have the opportunity of being able to set him free without a stain on his character.

Bolshevik Active in Turkestan

London.—The British authorities have received disturbing reports of Bolshevik activities in Turkestan and Afghanistan. Tashkent, capital of the general government of Russian Turkestan, is the centre for classes of instruction, where Bolshevik emissaries are trained and taught various languages before undertaking missions farther east.

Canada to Have Own Fur Sales

Winnipeg.—Canadians have expressed the opinion that this country ought to have a fur sale of its own. It is proposed to hold regular meets in Montreal, where many thousands of pelts will be offered. A charter for this purpose has been obtained, and the first auction will probably be held in Montreal early in 1920.

SIMPLE AS A B.C. TRY IT TONIGHT FOR YOUR NERVOUSNESS

Worn out, tired in the morning, you lack the energy and ambition to work as of old. This means nerve decay—nerves that are starved for the want of good, rich blood.

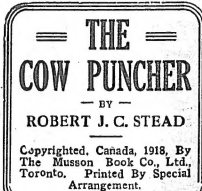

It's blood nourishment that vitalizes the nerves. It's filled with poisons that hang on because your kidneys don't filter properly.

See here, fix up your kidneys, put new life in your liver, and you'll feel like new in a short time.

To do this, you must use Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They make life look bright and pleasant because they restore harmony and vigor to the organs that need repair.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills warm the blood and fill it with nutriment that's bound to build you up, sure to lift your weakness, that invariably does make joyous, robust good health.

Think of it, youthful strength, lots of nerve force, plenty of red blood surging through your veins— isn't this reason enough for using Dr. Hamilton's Pills? Sold in 25c boxes by all dealers.

His nights were busy with his investigations, but on Sundays, as usual, he went out to Duncan's. He had developed the habit of attending morning service; he loved the music, and it was customary for Edith to sing a morning solo. Her voice, which had enraptured him when they first met, had developed wonderfully. It filled the morning air like the clear tolling of silver bells. For its sake he gladly endured the sermons, and even in the sermon he sometimes found common ground with the preacher. They could meet on any faith that postulated the brotherhood of man. But the reverend speaker touched such a subject warily. It seemed to Dave he would gladly have gone further, but was held in restraint by a sense of the orthodoxy of his congregation. Too literal an interpretation of the brotherhood of man might carry the taint of Socialism, and the congregation represented the wealth of the city. It was safer to preach learnedly on abstractions of belief.

This morning Edith had not been in her place, and the service was flat. In the afternoon she was not at her home. Mrs. Duncan explained that Edith had gone to visit a friend in the country; would be away for some time. Dave felt a foolish annoyance that she should have left town. She might at least have called him up. Why should she call him up? Of course not. Still, the town was very empty. He drove with Mrs. Duncan in the afternoon, and at night took a long walk by the river. He had a vague but oppressive sense of loneliness. He had not realized what part of his life these Sunday afternoons with Edith had come to be.

He had no man friends; his nature held him apart from even his own sex. And yet he had a strange capacity for making friends quickly, if he tried. But he didn't try. He didn't feel the need. But he felt lost without Edith.

A few days later Concord strolled in, with the inevitable cigarette. He smoked in silence until Dave completed a story.

"Good stuff you're giving us," he commented, when the article was finished. "Mighty good stuff."

"Your tip put me on to a good lead all right," Dave acknowledged. "And now The Times is chasing me hard. They had a story this morning that the railway is buying a right-of-way up the river."

"Remember what I told you the other day? Stories start from nowhere. It's just like putting a match to tinder. Now we're off."

Concord smoked a few minutes in silence, but Dave could not fail to see the excitement under his calm exterior. He had, as he said, decided to "sit in" in the biggest game ever played. The intoxication of sudden wealth had already fired his blood.

He slipped a bill to Dave. "For your services in that little transaction," he explained.

Edith held the bill in his fingers, gingerly, as though it might carry infection, as in very truth it did. He realized that he stood at a turning point—that everything the future held for him might rest on his present decision. There remained in him not a little of the fine, stern honor of the ranchmen of the open range; honor curious, sometimes terrible, in its interpretation of right and wrong, but a fine, stern honor none the less. And he instinctively felt that to accept this money would compromise him forever more. And yet—others did it. He had no doubt of that. Concord would laugh at such scruples. And Concord had more friends than he had. Everybody liked Concord. It seemed to Dave that he, only, distrusted him. But that, also, as Dave said to himself, lay in the point of view. He granted that he had no more right to impose his standard of morals upon Concord than the preacher had to impose an arbitrary belief upon him. And as he turned the bill in his fingers he noticed that it was for one hundred dollars. He had thought it was ten.

"I can't take that much," he exclaimed. "It isn't fair."

"Fair enough," said Concord, well pleased that Dave should be impressed by his generosity. "Fair enough," he repeated. "It's just ten per cent. of my profit."

"You mean you made a thousand dollars on that deal?"

Exactly that. And that will look like a peanut to what we are going to make later on."

"We?"

"Yes. You and me. We're going into partnership."

"But I've nothing to invest. I've only a very little saved up."

"Invest that hundred."

Dave looked at Concord sharply. Was he trifling? No; his eyes were frank and serious.

"You mean now, I'll put you on to something, and it's the biggest thing that has been pulled off yet. There's a section of land lying right against the city limits that is owned by a fellow over in England; remittance man who fell heir to an estate and had to go home to spend it. Well, he has been paying taxes ever since, and is tired of the "bally rascals" besides, he is busy keeping his property in England reasonably well spent. I am arranging through a London office to offer him ten dollars an acre, and I'll bet he jumps at it. I've arranged for the necessary credits, but there will be some expenses for cables, etc., and you can put your hundred into that. If we pull it off—and we will pull it off—we start up in business as Concord & Elden, or Elden & Concord, whichever sounds better. Boy, there's a fortune in it."

"What do you figure it's worth?"

"Twenty-five dollars an acre?"

"Twenty-five dollars an acre!" Concord shouted. "Dave, newspaper routine has killed your imagination, little as one would expect such a result, from some of the things the papers print. Twenty-five dollars an acre! Listen!"

"The city boundaries are to be extended—probably will be by the time this deal goes through. Then it is city property. A street railway system is to be built, and we'll see that it runs through our land. We may have to 'bribe' somebody, but it's a poor engineer that saves on greatness. Then we'll survey that section into twenty-five foot lots—and we'll sell them at two hundred dollars each for those nearest the city down to one hundred for those farthest out—average one hundred and fifty, total nine hundred and sixty thousand dollars. Allow, say, sixty thousand for 'grease' and there is still nine hundred thousand, and that doesn't count real estate commissions. Dave, it's good for a cool million. And that is just the beginning. It will give us a standing that will make anything possible."

Dave was doing rapid thinking. Suddenly he faced Concord, and their eyes met.

"Concord," he said, "why do you put this up to me?"

"What d'ye mean?"

"You don't need my little hundred to put this over. Why do you let me in on it?"

Concord smiled and breathed easily. There had been a moment of tension.

"Oh, that's simple," he answered. "I figure this business is going to be too big for me, and you are the partner I need. I figure we'll travel well in double harness. I'm a good mixer—I know people—and I've got ideas. And you're sound and honorable and people trust you."

"Thanks," said Dave, dryly.

"That's right," Concord continued. "We'll be a combination hard to beat. You know the story about the brothers in the coal business?"

"No."

"Jim and Fred were coal dealers, when a revival broke out in their town, and they got religion. Then he tried to convert Fred; tried awful hard to get Fred to at least go to the meetings. But Fred wouldn't budge. Said it wasn't practicable. Jim argued and coaxed and prayed, but without result. At last he put it up to Fred."

"Fred," he said, "why won't you come to our meetings?"

"Well," the brother answered, "it was all right for you to go religion. Sort o' lends respectability to the firm. But if I get it, too, who's going to weigh the coal?"

(To Be Continued.)

Germany's present population has been estimated at as low as 57,000,000, as compared with nearly 65,000,000 before the war.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 30

JESUS TEACHES PETER TRUE GREATNESS

I. Christ's Amazing Love for His Own (v. 1-3).

Jesus was fully conscious of what was upon him. He knew that the cross with all its anguish was just before him. He knew that his disciples would shamefully forsake him in a few hours. He knew that one of that number would be the instrument in the hands of the devil in his betrayal. He knew that all things were in his hands; was fully conscious of his duty. Notwithstanding all this, he displayed patient and unending love. He did not withdraw his love from them because of their weakness and the shameful failure which he knew would soon be made manifest.

II. Christ Washing His Disciples' Feet (v. 4-11).

This act is symbolic of his amazing love for his disciples. Jesus did not regard his hands as too holy to do this menial service. The true Christian does not allow his rank in society to keep him from acts of lowly service.

1. Steps in this service: (1) He rose from supper; (2) laid aside his garments; (3) took a towel and girded himself; (4) poured water into a basin; (5) washed his disciples' feet; (6) wiped them with a towel where he was girded. These steps symbolize Christ's entire work of redemption. His rising from supper represents his rising from his place of enjoyment in the heavenly glory; his laying aside his garments, his putting aside his vestiture of majesty (Phil. 2:7, 8); his girding himself, his taking the form of a servant (Phil. 2:7); the water in the basin, his cleansing blood; his washing of their feet, his actual cleansing of men through his word (John 15:3; Eph. 5:26); his taking his garments again, his return to his place and position of glory.

2. Peter's impetuous ignorance. He goes to an extreme in assuming that it was his failure to understand the significance of this service that caused him to behave so strangely.

3. The significance of this service to those who participate in it. (1) It is a spiritual cleansing (v. 8). Fellowship with Jesus is only possible as we are continually cleansed from our sins. "If that is washed needeth not to wash his feet, but is clean every whit" (v. 10). The cleansing here is not the washing of regeneration, but that of sanctification. Even regenerate folks need the continual cleansing of Christ's blood in order to have fellowship with him. He that is regenerated—washed in the blood of Christ, symbolized by baptism—does not need a repetition of time; he only needs the cleansing of sanctification, symbolized by the washing of the feet. As we go through this world after regeneration we are contaminated by its sins. He is willing always to cleanse us of our sins if we allow him. (2) A badge of brotherly affection. This act showed his abandonment to the service of his own. This is a lesson that is much needed today. We need more and more the fulness of brotherly love. This love needs to be manifested so that it may be seen and realized. True love can only be proved by the service it renders. (3) A proof of humility. This is a lesson much needed by us all. The disciples had just been disputing as to who should be the greatest in the kingdom; their selfish ambition was expressing itself. Today, on every hand, we see expressions of pride, vanity, and even arrogance on the part of those who are professed followers of the lowly Jesus. If we Son of God was not ashamed to stoop to lowly service his disciples should not regard it beneath their dignity to follow in his steps. (4) Equalization. As they would thus stoop to serve each other in the name of Christ there would be sure destruction of caste among them. The Spirit of Christ in this service is the great leveler of humanity.

III. An Example for Us (v. 12-16).

The disciples of the Lord are under obligation to do unto each other as he did unto them. This obligation rests upon his Lordship (v. 14). All who call him Lord in sincerity will obey him. To refuse to obey him is to put one's self above his Lord.

Chinese Masons in Victoria

A sea lion, a fusillade of crackers, a banquet, and the raising of the Chinese flag, indicated to the Victorian town of Echuca that a branch of the Chinese Masonic Society had been formed. Chinese from all parts of Victoria attended the ceremony, and the mayor and councillors of Echuca were guests. The Chinese master of ceremonies was interviewed by returned soldiers who objected to the flying of the Chinese flag alone. Australian and British flags were at once hoisted to the top of the flagpole.

Trade Commission Says People Ought to Be Content With Brand

On account of complaints regarding the sugar shortage, the Canadian Trade Commission telegraphed thirteen representative boards of trade and wholesale grocers' associations of Canada, stating that yellow sugar was available for immediate delivery. The replies have shown no evidence of a sugar famine, but some objection was made to the proportion of yellow sugar offered. It would appear that the problem is one of high living rather than high cost of living.

The Canadian trade commissioners are convinced that the clamor for more sugar is due largely to people insisting on getting all white sugar to the practical exclusion of yellow.

Smelter Company Contemplates Installing A New Concentrator At Rossland, B.C.

A report from Victoria says that the Consolidated Mining and Smelter Company contemplates installing a new concentrator at Rossland, British Columbia, which will cover an area of about an acre and involve an outlay of at least $1,000,000. The buildings probably will be of steel, with steel and glass windows, granite walls and concrete floors. The capacity of the mill will be 1,500 tons a day. It will be designed to treat the ores of the Rossland camp by a process that has been tested for some months at the test concentrator at Trail, British Columbia. The question of the site of the mill is said to be unsettled, but Rossland will probably be the first choice.

Seventy Mammals Were Secured By a Single Vessel

With the arrival in Victoria recently of three whaling ships, the season has come to a close after a most successful period of fishing. The leading boat secured seventy mammals, which is considered a good record. There was an unusually large number of sperm whales caught, averaging about thirty feet each, as against the sixty feet full grown whale. Many sulphurs were also shot, running eighty-six feet. One mammal measuring forty-four feet in girth yielded 162 barrels of oil.

Sounding Oceans' Depths

Sounding, or determining the depth of the ocean, is now being accomplished by means of an echo. The instrument used is being installed on the steamship Governor, a vessel just returned by the government to private owners, and now in coastwise trade between San Diego and Seattle, Washington. The device records the depth of the ocean from a fraction of one fathom to 5,000 fathoms, and will record four soundings a minute.

CUTICURA HEALS ECZEMA

All over baby's face. Came in water blisters and then formed a solid scale. Began to itch and burn so bad to bandage his hands as he wanted to scratch. Face was badly disfigured. Trouble lasted 4 months. Degenerating Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Used one cake Soap and one box Ointment when he was healed.

From signed statement of Mrs. Albert Ellis, Wettenberg, N.S.

For every purpose of the toilet Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum are supreme.

A Happy Family

BY DR. S. C. DOWERS

A happy family is one that can sit down to the table with keen appetites and good cheer. Plenty of the out-of-doors and cleanliness, inside and outside of the body, will make for health, wealth and happiness. Your doctor will tell you that anything from a headache to the most serious illness may result from allowing food to ferment in the intestines. The first thing to do in case you feel mean, lousy, dull, perhaps feverish, is to flush the liver and kidneys, drink plenty of water, and take a dose of castor oil, or, something better, made of May-apple, aloin and jalap, and long sold by almost every druggist as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. This may save you from a fit of sickness, remove the poisons from the system and give the tissues of the body a chance to build up and resist disease.

People are realizing more and more that the kidneys, just as do the bowels, need to be flushed occasionally. The kidneys are an eliminative organ and are constantly working, separating the poisons from the blood. Uric acid backs up into the system, causing rheumatism, neuralgia, dropsy and many other serious disturbances.

This can be avoided by stimulating the kidneys to increased action, and because of its tonic effect on these organs I would advise any one to get Anurie (anti-uric-acid) which is to be had nowadays for fifty cents, at almost any drug store.

XMAS DELICACIES

Christmas is only about 4 weeks away, almost time to prepare the Xmas cooking. You know the Xmas cake always tastes better when about a month old. Expect Old Santa will be pretty slim with his presents this time, so all the more reason to make the Xmas Dinner a rousing success. Let us help you by supplying the best Groceries obtainable.

Seedless Raisins are again on the market. Our Delmonte and Griffin brands are sure beautiful stock.

Currants. New pack currants have also arrived. These have been off the market for months and will be all more appreciated.

Mince-meat. Wetheys Mince-meat cannot be beaten for pies, as only pure ingredients are used. Try a packet with next order.

Peels. Have been scarce. Have some in stock and more on the road. Do not delay ordering Peels as supply is limited.

Cranberries. Xmas without cranberries! We have the Jerseys in the late keepers, will keep till after Xmas, 2 lbs for 50c.

Figgs. Last year we could not get a fig. We have these booked for Dec 1. Supply will be limited, so don't delay.

Spices. All kinds to put the spice in that Xmas pudding. Domolco Brand makes lovely clear candy. Just try. Home-made candy beats the bought kind any time.

Do not forget that we will have all kinds of Nuts, Candies, Jap Oranges Bon-Bons, etc. early in December.

Apples. You have all heard of the O.K. brand apples. These are the finest fruit we have ever seen. Apples are cheap at to-day's prices No 1 are $3.75.

BE PREPARED IN TIME

Last year at this time Chinook, in fact, the whole of the West, was desperately fighting the flu. At this time of writing, it looks as though Chinook and the West may, at no distant date, be fighting the terrible scourge of smallpox. This loathsome malady is spreading with an alarming rate in Ontario, causing a very serious condition. Wednesday's papers contained the unpleasant news that at Eastend, Sask., a town of 1000 inhabitants, no less than 21 well-defined cases had been diagnosed, and a case in Calgary has been reported. Being forewarned is being forearmed. The flu caught Chinook, and many other places, totally unprepared to cope with the fatal malady, and had not Chinook have had in its midst a competent physician and a staff of capable nurses to carry out his instructions, there is not a shadow of doubt but what some of our citizens would have succumbed to the fatal ravages of the flu. During that time of sickness and death, Chinook will always be remembered as having never lost one by the flu

GOVERNMENT RELIEF WORK

In connection with the above, the provincial government has sent out circulars giving in detail the method of giving relief to destitute farmers, which is to be dealt with by the councils of municipal districts in organized municipalities, and in unorganized districts the government itself looks after the distribution.

Where relief is given to parties owning patented lands, a lien is to be taken on such land in the name of the municipal district. In all cases promissory demand notes in favor of the municipality are to be taken from those to whom relief is given.

Relief for destitute farmers residing on their land is being limited to supplies of coal, flour, oatmeal, potatoes, and fats in some form.

The Dept. of Agriculture has purchased a quantity of hay in Eastern Canada and also secured a quantity in Manitoba, which is for sale, either direct to farmers, or for sale to farmers through the councils of their municipal districts.

All bona fide farmers who have less than 100 head of cattle are entitled to shipment, free of charge, of seven cars of feed for their live stock, or the free shipment of two cars of cattle to wherever the feed has been located. All movement of feed and live stock is based upon the proposition that the parties receiving the free freight privileges must be bona fide farmers owning less than 100 head of cattle.

Farmers Buy Ford Trucks Because they save labor, save time, save money.

The Ford Truck is the most general-purpose implement on the farm.

The farmer can get his breakfast at home, take his produce to market, and be home again for dinner.

He can command the highest prices for his vegetables and fruit because he gets them to market while the dew is still on them.

He can take his hogs, sheep and other stock to market, as well as haul roots, potatoes and apples from the field.

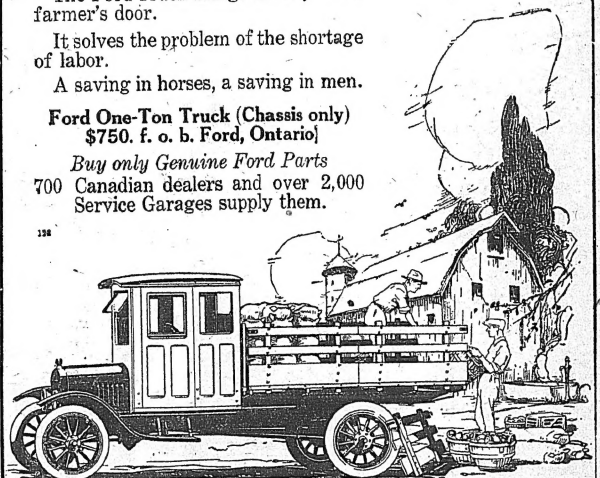

The Ford Truck brings the city to the farmer's door.

It solves the problem of the shortage of labor.

A saving in horses, a saving in men.
